DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 13 recites the limitation "agent" in line 15 of page 29. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claims 16 and 17 recite the limitation "said compound of interest" in lines 6 and 9. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Information Disclosure Statement

The listing of references in the specification is not a proper information disclosure statement. 37 CFR 1.98(b) requires a list of all patents, publications, or other information submitted for consideration by the Office, and MPEP § 609 A(1) states, "the list may not be incorporated into the specification but must be submitted in a separate paper." Therefore, unless the references have been cited by the examiner on form PTO-892, they have not been considered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in-

(1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effect under this subsection of a national application

Art Unit: 1743

published under section 122(b) only if the international application designating the United States was published under Article 21(2)(a) of such treaty in the English language; or
(2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that a patent shall not be deemed filed in the United States for the purposes of this subsection based on the filing of an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a).

Claims 1-14, 16-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Wu, et al. (US 6297061).

Wu, et al. teach an electrophoretic apparatus with more than one channel where movement is controlled by electrodes and a method for detecting the presence of analyte on particles by competitive immunoassays, sandwich immunoassays or fluorescently labeled immunoreagents with buffer stream (abstract; Figures 1a-14; col. 1, l. 56 - col. 20, l. 31; see especially col. 2, l. 34 – col. 12; col. 17, l. 9-10). Wu, et al. teach the use of cells (col. 1, l. 15-19; col. 3, l. 56 - col. 4, l. 16).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.

4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claim 15 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Wu, et al. (US 6297061) in view of Wiktorowicz, et al. (US 6013165).

Wu, et al. teach an electrophoresis apparatus and method as described above. Wu, et al. do not specifically teach an electrophoretic medium containing less than 1% of a polymer matrix. Wiktorowicz, et al. teach the use of linear polyacrylamide as a substitute matrix for an electrophoresis apparatus.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to substitute the buffer medium and polymeric solution of Wiktorowicz, et al. in the apparatus of Wu, et al. because it is easier to fill and replace the solution and would be easier to use with bead format because would not need to modify the channel of the device so that it can be used multiple times with multiple types of analytes or fluorescent agents decreasing the amount of time for analyzing multiple samples.
